

DONGHOON YI

I love learning and designing for railroad and other transit related materials. I love creating helpful and informative infographics and exploring the field of data visualization.

Logo Design

AMP (formerly known as Exponent Philanthropy) is a member-led association that supports and amplifies the impact of “lean funders”—foundations, philanthropic families, and individual donors with few or no staff. They help these funders maximize their philanthropic impact by providing resources, education, and a community for learning and collaboration.

About the Typeface

This display typeface is designed to mimic the flow and form of vines and leaves. The overly decorated glyphs are almost more of a pattern than legible letters.

Type Design & Zine

About the Typeface

It is designed to combine the rigid rectangular grid structure of modern design movements with a friendly roundedness to evoke a sense of playfulness. The pill shaped counters and bowls, rounded inner corners, small counters, and the inktraps are some of the defining features of this typeface.

App Redesign & UX Case Study

The task was to redesign the UI, UX, and the user flow of an existing app.

About the Project

Desmos Studio's mission is to ensure that everyone has the opportunity to discover their inner mathematician. Some problems with the existing mobile app are Feature Parity, Accessibility, Lack of User Awareness of the app's powerful features, and Competition.

This project was a full case study of Defining a Problem, Exploring Possible Design Solutions, Competitor Analysis, Prototyping, User Testing, Iteration, Finalizing product, Pitch and Presentation, and Reflections.

NASA Artemis II Poster

NASA Artemis II Mission is a flyover mission to the moon in NASA's SLS and Orion spacecraft. It will pave our way to Moon-landing for the Artemis III mission.

Photo Zine

Exploring Light, Movement, and Dynamism of New York City enabled by the vast network of trains, planes, ferries, buses, and infrastructure.

Description

New York City is known as the “City that Never Sleeps” for its vibrant activities and dynamism that happens day and night. Accessible, Affordable Mass Transit, and Walkable Infrastructure is not an option for NYC, but a necessity; It is like air and water to New Yorkers. This Photo Exploration explores motion and light at the above and underground areas of the City. The people, the buses, the trains, the cabs, all are vital to the livelihood of the densest area of the country.
